

Shepherd's Chair

Hinterland's first lounge chair offering, the Shepherd's Chair is the culmination of years of design and prototyping. Inspired by the close relationship between a traditional herders tools, animals and the land. The curve of the staff. The softness of the wool. And the wood of the forest. It is made of solid bent white ash and upholstered with a natural sheepskin sling seat and back rest. The three perfect arcs of the rounded wood frame hold the natural sheepskin in place and create an elegant chair to recline in.

MATERIALS

Available in two styles: sheepskin with ash and leather with walnut. Sheepskin is either natural or dyed black hand stitched canvas backed sheepskin with whitewashed or carbon dyed black solid white ash bent frame, and leather is with walnut bent frame.
